

Patient Representative Role Description

For Bronglais Public Art Task and Finish Group

As part of our plans for the development of a new fit for purpose Chemotherapy Day Unit at Bronglais General Hospital in Aberystwyth, we are working with Hywel Dda's Arts & Health Team to integrate public art into the new unit.

The Public Art Task and Finish Group will take strategic responsibility for the development and delivery of Public Art Plan for the Unit. Hywel Dda are looking for patient representatives to join the group and use your experience of the existing unit to help to create a new unit that is special and unique for all of our patients, staff and families.

This is a voluntary role and there will be no remuneration for your time to contribute.

What is the role of a Patient Representative?

- As a patient representative you will work in partnership with the Public Art Task and Finish Group, and others within the Healthcare system to help improve patient experience within the Bronglais Chemotherapy Day Unit to help achieve the shared vision for the role of art within the new unit.
- You will provide your voice to help us listen to patients, families and carers who use and care about the service.
- You will advise on the look and feel of the new Bronglais Chemotherapy Day Unit .
- You will help deliver the Public Art Plan for the new Bronglais Chemotherapy Day Unit .

Who can be a Patient Representative?

- Those who are a current or past patient to the service
- Aged 18 and over
- Those who wish to be involved and take part in art projects which will help improve patient experience within the Bronglais Chemotherapy Day Unit
- Those with an enthusiasm and commitment to providing an inclusive voice for all patients within the service
- Those with a lived experience of the Bronglais Chemotherapy Day Unit

How will you help? You will:

- Help us to focus on and respond to what matters to patients, their families, carers and staff.
- Use your experience, to help get the atmosphere and artwork for the new unit right for patients, families, carers and staff.
- Be a proactive, enthusiastic, and inclusive participant in all activities to ensure the best outcomes

- Share your experience and insights to help be a representative of all patients within the service

Your Commitments

You will provide an insight to the patient experience and help make important decisions about the look and feel of the Chemotherapy Day Unit. You will need to be:

- able to attend monthly meetings with the Bronglais CDU Public Art Task and Finish Group. Meetings will usually take place online and/or in person at 4pm on a Tuesday.
- comfortable in conversing with a wide range of health professionals on the group.
- flexible with timing and deadlines
